

“No Man’s Land Chili Cook-Off”

CHILI VERDE RULES - (NO Beans!)

I. Rules for Verde Competition

a. PAPERWORK

- i. Head Cook or designee must register (name, address, & email) at cook-off headquarters.
- ii. Head Cook will receive their judging cup and initial for receipt at Registration. Remove the numbered ticket from the cup, write your name on the back and keep in a safe place. Winners will be announced by the number and it must be presented to claim the award. No ticket, no award!
- iii. Cooks must not “mark” cup in any way. If cup is damaged, a replacement can be obtained by turning in damaged cup and numbered ticket.
- iv. Cooks must be at least 16 Years Old and up to enter the adult divisions.

b. PREPARING THE CHILI

- i. Chili must be cooked on site the day of the cookoff from scratch. “Scratch” means starting with raw meat and using regular spices. Commercial Chili Powder is Permissible, but complete commercial chili mixes are NOT permitted.
- ii. Chili must be prepared in the open in as sanitary a manner as possible.
- iii. Chili Verde is the combination of any kind of meats cooked with green chili peppers, various spices and other ingredients. NO BEANS, PASTA, GARNISH, or similar items are allowed.
- iv. No ingredients may be pre-cooked in any other way prior to the cook off. The only exceptions are canned / bottled tomatoes, tomato sauce, peppers, pepper sauce, broth & grinding and or mixing of spices.
- v. Meat may be pre-cut or Ground. No one meat is preferred over the other. MEAT CANNOT BE PRE-COOKED, in any manner. All other items must be cut / chopped or prepared AT the cook-off site.
- vi. The Head Cook must prepare the chili to be judged.

c. TURNING IN THE CHILI

- i. No More than One (1) Judging Sample can be taken from any one pot.
- ii. Each Cook may turn in only One (1) cup chili.

iii. At turn-in time, fill you cup $\frac{3}{4}$ full (or leave at least 1-inch head space) and take it to the Cook-off Headquarters. DO NOT BE LATE.

iv. Your chili will be judged on Appearance, Aroma and Taste.

II. Frank X Tolbert Secret Judging Procedure

a. JUDGING CUPS

i. Use Identical Cups (16-24 oz. Styrofoam) with lids and numbered tickets attached with tape to the outside of the cup, with a corresponding numbered ticket placed either inside the cup or if using double tickets, tape down one ticket where the second one can be torn off by the cook (Be watchful that the side of the ticket with the number is not the side applied to the tape.)

ii. Cups should not be kept in any order. Always make extra cups.

b. TURN-IN AND JUDGING NUMBER PROCEDURE

i. As Cups are turned in for judging, have workers collect the cups in large containers

ii. The containers are then taken to a different set of workers who will randomly move the cups, one at a time, and using a permanent marker will mark the cup with a Table Letter and Number. (Example: 45 Cooks; 3 Preliminary Judging Tables – A, B, & C; therefore, cups are marked A-1 thru A-15, B-1 thru B-15, & C-1 thru C-15.) Continue the process until all cups turned in are properly marked and taken to the appropriate judging tables.

iii. NO CHILI WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER JUDGING COMMENCES.

iv. Outside Judging Number should be changed at each stage of judging – Use a different color marker at each round of judging.

c. JUDGING PROCEDURE

i. Judging Sheets should be numbered 1 to 25 or more, down the side with space for the judges' score. An official judging sheet with general rules is included with the cook-off packet.

ii. Judging will be done using preliminary and final judges, and when necessary, semi-final. When there are 20 or less Chilies to be judged at a cook-off, it is permissible to eliminate the preliminary judging stage and proceed to final table judging.